14. Force Majeure

14.1 Definition

For the purposes of this RFP, “Force Majeure” means and event which is beyond the reasonable control of a Party, and which makes a Party’s performance of its obligations hereunder impossible or so impractical as reasonably to be considered impossible in the circumstances, and includes, but is not limited to war, riots, civil disorder, earthquake, fire, explosion, storm, flood, or other natural disaster or adverse weather conditions, strikes, lockouts or other industrial action (except where such strikes, lockouts, or other industrial actions of the Party are within the power of the Party invoking Force Majeure to prevent), or mechanical, electronic or communication failure, confiscation or any other action by Government Agencies.

“Force Majeure” shall not include (i) any event which is caused by the negligence or intentional action of a Party or such Party’s agents or employees, nor (ii) any event which a diligent Party could reasonably have been expected to both (a) take into account at the time of the conclusion of this RFP and (b) avoid or overcome in the carrying out of its obligations hereunder.

“Force Majeure” shall not include insufficiency of funds or failure to make any payment required hereunder.

Vendor shall not be in default in the performance of its obligation under this RFP to the extent that its performance of any such obligation is prevented or delayed by a force majeure event.

14.2 No Breach of RFP

The failure of a Party to fulfil any of its obligations hereunder shall not be considered to be a breach of, or default under, this RFP insofar as such inability arises from an event of Force Majeure, provided that the party affected by such an event has taken all reasonable precautions, due care and reasonable alternative measures, all with the objective of carrying out the terms and conditions of this RFP.

14.3 Measure to be taken

- a. A Party affected by an event of Force Majeure shall take all reasonable measures to ensure such Party's inability to fulfil its obligations hereunder with a minimum of delay.
- b. A Party affected by an event of Force Majeure shall notify the other Party of such event as soon as possible, and in any event not later than fourteen (14) days following the occurrence of such event, providing evidence of the nature and cause of such event, and shall similarly give notice of the restoration of normal conditions as soon as possible.
- c. The Parties shall take all reasonable measures to minimize the consequences of any event of Force Majeure.

15. Arbitration

- 15.1 If the parties fail to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultations within thirty days of commencement of consultations, then either the service procuring agency or the service provider may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence arbitration, as hereinafter provided.
- 15.2 The applicable arbitration procedure will be as per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 as amended from time to time. In that event, the dispute or difference shall be referred to the sole arbitration of an officer as the arbitrator to be appointed with mutually consent from "SAROD" (Society for Affordable Redressal of Disputes) panel.
- 15.3 Work under the RFP shall, notwithstanding the existence of any such dispute or difference, continue during arbitration proceedings and no payment due or payable by the Service Procuring Agency shall be withheld on account of such proceedings unless such payments are the direct subject of the arbitration.
- 15.4 The venue of arbitration shall be the place from where the RFP has been issued.

16. Applicable Law And Jurisdiction

- 16.1 All matters connected with this shall be governed by the Indian law both substantive and procedural, for the time being in force and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of Indian Courts at NCR. No alternative offer shall be considered.
